

If you're a software or technology vendor, here are some reasons to bring in the Ding team you want to land your pitch more convincingly with prospects

Ding!

we help you talk about your product in the language of learning, and identify more clearly how it can have a positive impact on learner experience you want to develop a new product for the education market

Ding!

we work with you to align your technology more closely with specific aspects of learning to help educators see the value in your proposition you want to improve the effectiveness of an existing product

Ding!

we evaluate how your product is currently used, and then help you develop a new iteration that is more closely aligned to learners' needs
