

If you're a university or education provider, here are some # reasons to bring in the Ding team

you want to develop a new programme or short course

we help you define the intended outcomes, design the learning journey and determine the most appropriate technologies for you and your learners.

you want to move an existing course online

we work with you to translate the face-to-face learning experience into an effective online experience that puts learners at the centre.

you have an online course that is underperforming

Ding!

we evaluate the course, identify the issues that are causing the problems, make recommendations that will get the course back on track - we can also work with your team to develop their confidence and skills in providing effective online learning.
